NAVEND - Center for Kurdish Studies is since 1992 a registered association based in Bonn, Bornheimer Straße 20-22, by a 20 minutes walk from the central train station. It is a small reference library open to all public that collects around 700 publications and 250 newspapers and journals in several languages (German, Kurdish, Persian, Arabic, Turkish). Opening hours are: Monday - Thursday from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, and Friday from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. There is no card needed and no entrance fee. You can read and work on the books in the library. You can search for books on the online catalogue offered on a PC-desk. Apart, there are desks and electrical outlets where you can install your own laptop. You are not allowed to bring your bag, jacket, food and drinks into the library. There are lockers in a small room outside the library (used without deposit), where there is also a vending machine for tea and coffee, and small tables and seats where you can bring your food and have a rest.
